Church,

Can you believe it has been exactly one year since my first Sunday at Arcadia? Crazy! I feel like we've only been here a few months. The newness hasn't worn off yet. In fact, I'm still learning about a lot of our church members and still learning the area. Everyday I pull into the parking lot I still say, "I can't believe I work here." I can honestly say that I love our church and our community deeply. I am also excited about what God has planned for us. And on a side note, it is so good to live in a city that has a winning baseball team (game 1 of the World Series was just played as I am writing this) and delicious seafood.

I remember it like it was yesterday. This time last year was a very exciting time for my wife and I. We received a call from the pastor search team while on vacation in August of 2018. It was much needed good news after a rough summer. Shortly afterwards we found ourselves in a whirlwind of excitement and change as we progressed through the interview process. In early September, I spoke with my immediate supervisor at my previous job letting him know of my conversations with our church. A few weeks later in September some of the members of the search team joined us in Rockwall to hear me preach. I didn't think I could be any more nervous. However, by the first weekend in October I was preaching for the search team at FBC Lake Jackson. I was already nervous preaching before a pastor search committee but to add to it the church was recording the service to be aired on TV! The moment I looked up and saw the "Live in 5" sign I almost passed out. I said a quick prayer and God calmed my racing heart as the service began.

All went well and a few weeks later we were coming to Arcadia in view of a call the first weekend in October. I don't remember what I preached, but I do remember the hospitality our church showed us that weekend. I also remember the great food for the lunch on Saturday. Another month would pass before my first official Sunday. We moved into our house the last weekend of October 2018. Stephen came over late that night to help us unload furniture until we got the bed out of the truck (sorry Stephen for putting the bed in first so it was at the back of the U-Haul). The next day a bunch of the men helped us unload the rest. As I laid down to bed that Saturday night with the first official Sunday morning on my mind I remember being incredibly thankful to God for this church and for calling me here. I thank Him for the provisions of help as well. I am still thankful.

As I look back at the transition period for our family I am reminded of the goodness of God. He has given us a great church family and provided everything we needed to get here. A year ago we had just come out of a miscarriage, I was working two jobs I wasn't fond of, and I was constantly bugging God about a pastoral position. A year later God has given us another child, I am in a pastor position of my dreams, and I am working one job. I don't know why God is good to us, but He is. I have truly experienced the great grace of God in my life and it has radically changed me! Even if everything I have in this life is lost I still have my salvation. I hope you can say the same. What an incredible year it has been! I can't thank you enough for your hospitality, prayers, love and for your service to our church. From our family to yours: We love you all!
